The church is Christ ' s representative on earth. As that representative it needs to carry out the commands of God in unity so that it may be a collective witness to the world. The problems of ecumenism are discussed with the conclusion that the gospel of Jesus Christ cannot be watered down if the church is to be an effective

At a time in which the very word church sounds a tone of dull irrelevance, the doctrine of the church has suffered the studied neglect of many Christian leaders. The persistent demands to market, manage and grow the church and to meet the felt needs of churched and unchurched all threaten to quench theological reflection on the abiding nature and mission of the church.
