"Toward a True Kinship of Faiths" by the Dalai Lama is well worth the read regardless of your religious or non religious beliefs, and I cannot recommend it enough. In it, he lays out an argument for how we as humans can focus on our common ethic of compassion "Make the vow today that you shall never allow your faith to be used as an instrument of violence.

towards humans but also towards the earth and all living things. This can unite us, even as we continue to practise our own faiths. Toward a True Kinship of Faiths is an excellent account of an autobiographical journey into interfaith relationships and theology. As he moves among other faiths, Buddhism remains his grounding.
